

MOTOR SPEEDWAY TO BE BUILT AT ONCE BY WINCHESTER MEN

WINCHESTER, Ind., Aug. 14.—A number of Winchester business men have formed a company to be known as the Funk's Lake Speedway Company, and have taken over the race track at Funk's Lake. A number of improvements will be made to the track and a new grandstand will be built. The track is to be banked much higher than at present, enabling race drivers to make much faster time than was possible heretofore. The track will be oiled to eliminate dust, which has been objectionable at former races. A new grandstand is to be erected, as well as a new refreshment stand. A new traffic system has been worked out so that large crowds may be handled without confusion. It is the intention of the new organization to stage nothing but high class races. No "barstoppers" will be allowed to enter any races, and no motorcycle races will be run. A race is already scheduled for Labor Day, with a purse of $1,000.

Thieves Visit Barn.
The barn of Fred Weist, who lives on the Irvin Cranor farm, one-half mile south of town, was visited by thieves, Wednesday night and goods to the value of about $150 were stolen. The articles taken consisted mostly of buggy harness, work harness, bridles and halters.

Entertain Prof. Clark.
A very pleasant evening was spent Wednesday at the handsome new home of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Burns, in Farmland, the event being in honor of Professor and Mrs. J. R. Clark and little daughter, Janice, who leave that place soon for Winchester, where Prof. Clark has been engaged as one of the instructors in the McKinley school.

TOBACCO MEN WORRIED OVER CROP-CUTTING MOVEMENT.
Comparatively little change is to be noted in the local leaf tobacco market. Receipts of old tobacco have been reduced to a minimum, and even private sales are infrequent.

Tobacco men and warehouse men are keeping well posted on the scattered meetings of tobacco growers throughout the country districts, at which the movement to cut the 1921 crop has gained some headway. It is believed, however, that the effort has met with little success among the growing element generally, owing to the fact that the majority of the tobacco farmers, having sold their products early last season, realized an unusual profit on their 1919 crop. Late reports from the burley grow
